ON THE ROAD To The Title

Sutherland v Bankstown

After two rounds both sides are sitting mid-table with a win each, a position they would be happy with. Sutherland again showed they are not going to be the easy beats with a grounding 1-0 win over Central Coast up at Pluim Park. Didn't have a lot of the play but the defence fought reslotely all day to deny the Coasties forwards a goal. Paul Henderson's form in goal has been excellent in the first two rounds. Bankstown not only found the weather hot but Canterbury in a more resilent mood and ready to shake off the draw specialist tag. Looked headed for a bad day but came back strong in the first half to draw level. Ran out of puff in the end and Canterbury's fresher legs paved the way for a victory. Should be a close and even tussle.

Bonnyrigg v Macarthur

Has the makings of a very entertaining clash between two sides that like to play open football. Last met in the semi-finals of the pre-season with Bonnyrigg scoring two late goals to record a 3-1 win. Both sides recorded 4-2 wins last weekend, Bonnyrigg's over Blacktown probably the more impressive of the two. Have plenty of players in form which makes coach John Turner's job of choosing the side even harder with a big squad to choose from. Macarthur were not at their best for the majority of the match against Ryde but came home strong in the last twenty minutes. Eric Williams struck form with a hat-trick and if he can find that form again Macarthur will press Bonnyrigg all the way. The Rams will also be out to avenge last years 7-0 thrashing at this ground. Bonnyrigg at home should however prevail.

Parramatta v Blacktown

Clashes between these two sides are all eagerly awaited by both players and supporters alike. Have been rivals for many years with a win giving either side a great deal of satisfaction. Both suffered losses last weekend and will be keen to bounce back straight away after first round victories.

The Eagles did not handle the hot weather very well and couldn't come home when they went behind. Lacked a killer punch up front with enough chances to score. Blacktown played their part in an exciting game against Bonnyrigg but just not good enough on the day. Stuart Cleary and Jon Angelucci's clash with Mark Reveley and Paul O'Grady will have a big bearing on this outcome. Blacktown look to have the better firepower to win this game but at home the Eagles are hard to beat especially twice in a row.

St. George v Leichhardt

The Saints have a tough ask to try and get their first of the season.

Having lost to Parramatta in Round 1 who subsequently beaten by Leichhardt last weekend, indicates an obvious win for the Tigers. The Saints will be hoping to repeat the pre-season cup win but since that game much has changed. Leichhardt's side is more settled now and the win over Parramatta was deserved in the end. Buonavoglia is again their man but in Pino Miccolis they have a player that just might be as influential. St. George couldn't cope with a strong Easts side in the second half conceding three goals. They cannot afford to do the same with the Tigers or they will face a similar result. Fabio Macolino will looking for a big game against his old club but Leichhardt likewise have five old faces going back to St. George equally determined for a sweet victory.

Ryde City v Central Coast

At least one of these teams will pick up their first points of the season.

With losses in the first two rounds it was not the start either side was looking for especially after reasonably good pre-season cup campaigns. Ryde twice went ahead against Macarthur only to let the lead slip and then concede two late goals. Once again showed they will be competitive but with

Matthew Borg out for the season, young strike force of Tim Gledhill and Tim Stratford needs to adapt very quickly to Super League life. The Coasties let another home game slip from their grasp last weekend. Had enough possession and chances to win the game but like last season found the goals hard to come by. These two teams built up a healthy rivallry when in the first division and I expect a tough but evenly matched game.

Eastern Suburbs v Canterbury

Eastern Suburbs came back from their first round loss with an emphatic 4-1 win over St. George. A superb second half display which netted them three goals, two of which went to Scott Mutton, was too much for St. George and a good return to form for the Wanderers. There are still those who doubt the ability of this team to achieve good things in '98 but if they can reproduce that form will definitely be there abouts. Canterbury also will be full of confidence after a good 4-2 win over Easts first round conquerers Bankstown. Beat Easts in the pre-season cup but was a close game with a goal separating them. Are sitting top of the table and will keen to make it three on the trot. However for mine Easts to win narrowly.

Leichhardt's two-goal hero John Buonavoglia celebrates one his goals.

BUONAVOGLIA ON SONG

Dynamic Leichhardt Tigers was on song for his side scoring both his sides goals in their 2-0 win over Parramatta Eagles at Melita Stadium.

But while Buonavoglia stole the show with his goals, the hot weather played its part, with players virtually walking by the end and Paul

Donnelly needing ambulance assistance after collasping from heat exhaustion.

For Leichhardt it was the win they wanted and needed to put a bad pre-season behind them and show they will be a force this year.

After an even first half, it was Buonavoglia that rose to the occasion with two well taken goals and generally being a menace to the Parramatta defence with his pace and skill on the ball.

Parramatta started the better with Brett Kinnimont and Malcolm Meilak having early but wasted chances. While it was mainly a battle of wits in the middle of the park, the Eagles were the ones getting the shots with Saso Boskovski denied by a finger-tip save from Jose Bello-Amigo and Meilak unable to connect properly from 6 metres after neat work by Saso Petrovski.

It wasn't until the half hour mark that Buonavoglia finally came to life, missing by inches from an acute angle and then denied by Jason Holmes from a rasping drive.

Bello-Amigo was busy again saving a goalbound shot from Donnelly, while new Tigers recruit Pino Miccolis, from Switzerland, was denied a first up goal by a diving save from Holmes.

Miccolis is just the player Katholos is looking for and on his performance will be a player to keep a close eye on during the season. It was his vision and precise ball to Mite Talcevski that should have seen the opening goal after the break but after beating Donnelly brilliantly sprayed his shot wide from only 5 metres.

It was about this time that Buonavoglia took control with Stephane Jee blocking his shot in the 59th minute and Holmes pushing his shot wide after he skirted around the Eagles defence. But from the ensuing corner, Rob

Pirecca fed the little striker near the edge of the area and he threaded his shot through a sea of legs to open the scoring.

He nearly caught Holmes out of ground with a lob but sealed the Tigers win seven minutes from the end with a well directed shot from 18 yards that went in off the post.

Before the restart however Donnelly had collasped and for ten minutes the situation looked tense as officials tried to cool him down as he lay in obvious distress.

Parramatta: Holmes, Reveley, Jee, Boskovski, Donnelly (Kimber), Meilak, Petrovski, Thomas (Panzarino), Islas, Kinnimont (Mittiga), O'Grady.

Leichhardt: Bello-Amigo, Popovich, Milicevic, Pettenon, Ortiz (Pirecca), Savoca, Buonavoglia, Talcevski (Totaro), Miccolis, Bazdaric, Nikolic (Ilic)

Scott Mutton again showed why Joe Watson was eager to bring him to Eastern Suburbs with a second half brace in their 4-1 win over St. George Saints at St. George Stadium.

Easts dominated the second half scoring three times as they pounded the Saints goalmouth after scores were level at the break.

Yavos Ekinci gave Easts a 5th minute lead with a drive into the roof of the net and then shortly afterwards Saints keeper Robert Graskoski was replaced after injuring himself going for a cross.

Saints striker Alex Araujo was just inches away from an equaliser in the 13th minute with play then becoming a midfield battle.

However the Saints applied some pressure with Christian Martinez missing a free header and Jimmy Corbo narrowly wide from 30 metres. With just minutes before the break they did level the scores, John Pillemer meeting Corbo's cross perfectly.

But once Jim Melissourgos had restored Easts lead with a simple tap in, they never looked like losing.

Mutton grabbed his first and Easts third in the 66th minute after being set up by Melissourgos and the rounded off the scoring with 13 minutes remaining after meeting a neat chip from Vadim Mikoutski.

St. George: Graskoski (Prentice), Scotti (Lombardo), Alidenes, Doyle, Holmes, J Pillemer, Martinez (Gibson), Araujo, Corbo, Price, Macolino.

Easts: Bihari, Dihm, Hickman, Moss, Sermanni, Daniels, Sharpley, Mikoutski, Ekinci, Melissourgos, Mutton.

Bonnyrigg White Eagles handled the conditions better than Blacktown City Demons to record an impressive 4-2 win at the Gabbie Stadium.

Paul Richardson opened the scoring in the 5th minute after dispossessing Pat Bradley and hitting shot across goal and inside the far post.

Blacktown had several half chances to equalise but did so with a well constructed goal involving Stuart Cleary and Steve Berry which was finally finished off by Steve Cutler.

However Bonnyrigg quickly regained their lead in the 36th minute, Mark Hoenselaars capitalising on confusion between Fernando Greco, Gary Van Egmond and Aaron Holst to race past them and score.

Chances were coming thick and fast at both ends of the park in the second half and it was Bonnyrigg who scored first with just over 15 minutes to play, Mancino blasting home from in front of goal.

But from the kick-off, Jon Angelucci found Tony Faria on the left, who beat one before crossing to an unmarked Cleary and he had simple task of placing into the net.

Bonnyrigg rounded off the win right on full-time when Hoenselaars hit the crossbar the rebound eventually finding David Harding who blasted home from the edge of the area.

Parramatta's midfielder David Thomas

Blacktown: Greco, Cutler, Foxe, Langan, Angelucci, Berry, Cleary, Bradley, Blake (Faria), Van Egmond, Holst (Dellasandro)

Bonnyrigg: Kos, Watton, Racker (Ghisso), Dragas, Warburton, Richardson, Mancino (Crnokrak), Harding, Hoenselaars, Xuereb, Gomez (Kleut).

Canterbury Marrickville moved to the top of the competition table after accounting for Bankstown City 4-2 at Jensen Park.

The Berries proved too strong in the second half with two goals in the last ten minutes after scores were locked at 2-2 at the break.

Canterbury started the stronger and two goals in as many minutes had them in control. Angelo Markopoulos opened the scoring in the 17th minute and two minutes later Jim Nikas added a second.

Sensing the danger Bankstown coach Blagoje Kuleski made some inspired substitutions which changed the game around.

Steve Eagleton pulled a goal back in the 25th minute and seven minutes later they were on level terms with Paul Bentvelzen scoring a good goal.

But it was Canterbury that handled the hot conditions better and they made the most of it when Markopoulos scored his second with nine minutes remaining and right on full-time and unfortunate own goal sealed the Berries second win on the trot.

Sutherland Sharks scored their first win of the season with an upset 1-0 victory over Central Coast up at Pluim Park.

A Justin McLeay goal 14 minutes into the match sealed the first points for the Sharks for 1998 and left the Coasties languishing equal bottom of the table.

McLeay pounced on the loose ball from a corner kick which the Coasties failed to clear.

The Coasties though worked fantically for an equaliser for the remainder of the match but once again poor finishing let them down.

Paul Henderson in the Sharks goal was gain at his brilliant best to thwart a number of good attacks by the Coasties.

He saved his best for the very last minute, denying Shane Knight what looked a certain equaliser.

Coasties: Woodhouse, Margin (Beveridge), Steele, Hagistefanis, Knight, Preston, Byrn, Sontag (Caisley), Demery, McGuire, Roberts.

Sutherland: Henderson, Saveski, Harrod, Brandtman, Bideau, Walsh, McLeay, Bard, Merralls (Blinoff), Richardson, Morales.

Eric Williams destroyed Ryde City's hopes of an upset win with a superb hat-trick in Macarthur Rams 4-2 win at Lynwood Park.

The win enabled Macarthur to join Canterbury at the top of the table with two wins from two.

Ryde looked set for a win when they lead 2-1 with 75 minutes gone on the clock.

But Williams managed his second goal after Sam Krslovic had failed to hold Daniel Cummins shot and Williams was on the spot to slam home.

Williams then put Macarthur ahead with just five minutes to play and shortly after Matthew O'Shea made sure of all the points with a good shot from 25 metres.

Ryde had earlier taken the lead thanks to a Troy Shipley free kick around the wall five minutes into the second half.

Williams leveled from anarrow angle to equalise and just minutes Ryde was in front when Tim Stratford converted from the penalty spot.

Macarthur: Crawley, Lloyd, Bourke (O'Shea), Valle, Reid, Williams, Whiddett, Macerola (Rayner), Green, Cummins, Minol (Usljebrka).

Ryde: Krslovic, Johnsson, Shipley, Cowley, Watkins, Kelly, Cetinay, Peatey (Imaya), Koch, Gledhill, Statford (McKie).

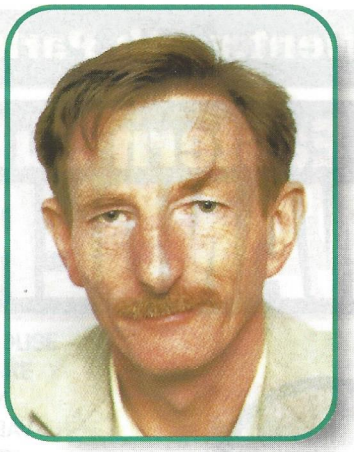
PAUL GOODWIN REPORTS



HURSTVILLE CITY MINOTAURS BACK IN FRONT

The competition has settled down a little after the opening skirmishes and the premiers have begun to look more like their old, near invincible selves.

Injuries to Louis Dounis, George Kalogeras and John Palapanis have not inconvenienced them unduly and the absence of keeper John Mylonas has been well covered by youngster Stacey Alogdellis.

The rock solid defensive work of quietly effective skipper Sam Panagakis, fiery Peter Papoythis and versatile George Zabetakis has allowed the speedy Tony Mihaljevic and Socrates Bakafoukas to terrorize opposing defences with their rapid raids and direct line to goal.

Minotaurs were up against a resolute Mount Pritchard at Ernie Smith Reserve

The older and vastly more experienced Minotaurs were soon in front at their backup headquarters, but after taking a 2nd minute lead through the inspirational Peter Papoythis they were brought back to earth by a sweetly timed drive from Nick Markovski who ran onto a Laurence Hall cross from the right eight minutes later.

Two goals in the 25th and 31st minutes by Tom Pontidas put the Hurstville side back in command and they added a fourth twenty minutes into the second half thanks to Nick Andreou.

The 4-1 win was pretty convincing and underlies their position as the new leaders, albeit on goal difference from the Penrith Panthers.

Bathurst had been held to draws at each of their previous home games and after two wins on their journeys to town expected Auburn to be an opponent they would have the measure of at Alex Lamberton.

Auburn were struggling for numbers, but after going behind to a Mark Rooke goal after a corner in the 5th minute fought back to level 6 minutes after the restart.

David Orlando ran onto a long ball out of defence and tucked his shot away nicely from 15 yards out on the left of the area.

It was a third draw in succession at home for Bathurst.

Manly, buoyed by the sensational debut the previous week of hat-trick hero Tony Krslovic, were back at Cromer Park for the visit of free scoring Rockdale City Suns.

It was a torrid first half for the Dolphins who faced a stiff sea breeze and an all out assault on their goal for most of the 45 minutes.

Krslovic tested Sam Butera in the 3rd minute and Danny Townsend clipped just over in the 15th, but it was Rockdale who did most of the attacking, but good goalkeeping by Marin Passalich, poor finishing by Saffet Catovic and a shot from Iain Macdonald which hit the post left the Suns scoreless at the break.

The second half was quite a different story.

They only had to wait eight minutes for their big signing Tony Krslovic to chime in with the first goal which set them on their way to a convincing 3-0 win against a team hailed as potential premiers a few weeks ago.

Townsend made the run down the left and laid on the pass for Krslovic to draw, then beat the keeper.

The Rockdale defence could only head clear from a corner in the 83rd minute and Townsend was on hand to put the loose ball away.

A long range free kick from Kelvin Foster in the 85th saw Krslovic nod on for Hassan El Khansa to head past an advancing keeper.

Krslovic almost made it four in stoppage time, but could only find the side netting.

This was the Dolphins' third win on the trot, all at Cromer Park admittedly, but on this performance they could be well be on course for a share of the honours themselves.

At Abruzzi Oval AC United met nearby rivals Fairfield Bulls and it was a former Bulls star, Osvaldo El Ali, player-coach of AC who had most to prove against his old pals.

In a fiery encounter Fairfield prevailed by virtue of a 19th minute strike by Saso Talevski and were full value for their win.

AC United were without Zaya Younan and Bruno Beddoni was often forced to plough a lone furrow up front as playmaker and coach Osvaldo El Ali did most of his probing on the flanks.

El Ali did make his way into the area and looked set to score, but was impeded and came down in the 6th minute, only for his appeals for a penalty to be turned down.

His frustration got the better of him near the end when referee Terry Cross red carded him towards the end of a game which saw his counterpart, Marshall Soper, stretchered off with a badly cut eye after being struck by the ball.

AC United went closest to scoring through headers by Beddoni which missed the mark narrowly.

Fairfield had more of the game and Scott Gilbert worried the defence all day with his great running off the ball. A header of his was tipped over by the very capable AC custodian, Andres Ferreiro who also stopped another fierce drive from the former Bankstown and Parramatta Eagles star.

The goal was set up by Soper who spotted Talevski free on the left and the skilful striker was able to give AC defender Rod Salinas the slip and score from a difficult angle along the byline, finding the far corner of the net.

Belmore returned to Arlington Oval for the visit of hitherto pointless Illawarra Lions on Saturday.

It has been a long time coming, but after some near misses the Lions finally hit pay dirt with a vengeance.

From the moment that ex Dapto striker Matthew Borg stunned the locals by dashing through the defence to open the scoring in the first minute

Illawarra was never going to lose this game.

Man of the match Desimir Tosevski laid on a fine pass for Robert Trajcevski to go on and beat the keeper for the second and Tosevski chipped the keeper for the third to give the Lions a commanding 3-0 half time lead.

Borg accepted a pass from Tosevski to net his second and then Valentin Tasevski concluded the scoring after a smart turn inside the area following a good cross.

The same day Moorebank were due to meet Hills United at Hammondville Park with the home side still looking for their first win and Hills coming off a big 5-2 win at Mount Pritchard.

Unfortunately a floodlight failure meant that the game had to be abandoned before it could start and it is hoped to restage the game at the same ground at 7 pm on Wednesday next, subject to confirmation.

Penrith faced their toughest assignment to date in Stanmore Hawks at Cook Park, but with both sides level on points and each of them with three wins to their name the odds looked even enough.

It was a tight game with Penrith on top early, but gradually being forced on the back foot as the game wore on and Stanmore's youngsters laid seige to the Panthers goal in the second half.

A big push down the right by Danny Hinton led to the diminutive player's tantalising cross from the byline which Damien Shepherd turned into his own net as the imposing figures of Lawrie McKinna and Richard Astone began to converge on the ball in only the fifth minute for a quick Penrith lead, which they held onto for the rest of the game.

Stanmore had no real luck, as first Jason Oldridge struck the frame of the goal with a dipping shot which had Mike Gibson beaten and then Theo Katsaris hit the post.

Gibson was always busy in the last twenty minutes and showed tremendous anticipation to cut out a stream of high balls as well as diving full length to block firmly-hit ground shots by the likes of Phil Cacciola and Paul Andricopoulos.

With Eddie Briscoe under suspension for this and one more game, as well as an injury to Burim Zajmi and enforced absence of goalie Paul Kyprianou the Hawks were handicapped before they started.

They also lost the tricky Chris Sciberras at the end of the first half to injury.

Penrith, on the other hand, had the satisfaction of being overnight leaders on the strength of their fourth win on the trot.

2nd DIVISION

ROUND THREE HONOURS TO GREYSTANES

Two years ago the modest little club from the south west, Greystanes, carried all before them and wound up as premiers of this section after working through the various divisions to gain further promotion to the First Division.

Sadly, all that fell apart when a combination of factors conspired against the club. Illness to their coach, Paul Sparkes, a nomadic existence due to problems in getting a suitable ground ready and the Federation's need to prune the division to fourteen clubs meant that the 'Stanes dropped out after only one season.

Despite losing two class players the club has shown huge resilience to win their first few matches, if only by the skin of their teeth, signs that all is well after those earlier disappointments.

Against the talented Sydney Districts side at Fraser Park Stanes found themselves a goal down at half time as a result of a 15th minute strike by Dumaeff.

A quick response from Craig Schofield only seconds after the restart put the visitors back in contention and after a typically resolute performance they went on to claim victory with a goal by Brad Racker in the 89th.

This, their third win in succession and also their third to be won in the dying stages, lifted them to a share of the lead with Dulwich Hill, who also remain undefeated.

Gladesville United felt that their luck had deserted them a week earlier when beaten by Sydney Districts and were in for another hard game at Hajduk Stadium against the local Wanderers.

They fell behind to a goal by Damian Smith in only the 6th minute, but stuck to their task and managed to keep the scoreline to 1-0 at the break.

A big burst upfield by George Ganiatsas in the 51st minute saw Gladesville draw level as the striker's rarely used left foot found the net with a cool finish.

It was a good, clean game and both sides came out of it with credit.

A battered University of NSW side was back at David Phillips for Hurstville ZSC's trip east and at last they looked competitive.

It took an Ivan Pavelic goal in the 65th minute and an own goal four minute later to get the better of the students who will be anxious to break their duck very soon.

Parramatta City and Alexander were in action in a derby at Eric Primrose Reserve with the home side keen to prove that results to date have been no real guide to their true abilities.

In recent weeks City have had little luck, with a competitive team unable to break through against two stubborn sets of opponents.

A missed penalty right near the finish of the game at Greystanes still rankles with City's new coach Danny Aboud who feels that his side had the 'Stanes measure for most of the game.

Greystanes won that game with a spot kick of their own to rub salt into the wound.

A narrow loss in both opening games to late penalties is hard to accept for any team and this derby was the chance to put matters to rights.

Alas the best Parramatta could manage against a well credentialled Alexander was a late consolation goal by Schofield.

Alex were two up inside 9 minutes thanks to former Belmore pair Ari Zafiris and Manuel Pavlidis. Further second half goals by Harry Kouklidis, John Gouskas and Manuel Sarikakis emphasised the strength of this inner-suburban side.

Mount Druitt came good after going close in both opening games

They established a clear-cut 3-0 half time lead at Ernie Smith Reserve and were in no mood to surrender it, despite Liverpool pulling two goals back soon after the restart.

Ricardo Sandoval netted early on and Geoff Chew added his growing tally soon after. 17 year old Leigh Cross, brought up from the 18s this season, made it 3-0 before half time.

Defensive lapses allowed Liverpool to score twice early in the second half through Smyth and Giansante, but nobody was going to deny Mount Druitt their first win after two unlucky losses in two earlier matches.

Dulwich Hill maintained their form with an anticipated win over Arncliffe Scots. Smith, Colagiuri and Fernandez were on target for the impressive and undefeated Hill, with all the goals coming in the second half after George Georgevski had given Arncliffe a 23rd minute lead.

Ryde reaches top in NSW

Two weeks ago marked a significant day in the history of the Ryde City Soccer Club, when they played Blacktown City for their first ever match in the Super League.

Since the club was founded in 1953 to cater for a fast growing young district, Ryde under previous names North Ryde and North Ryde RSL have slowly but surely worked their way to the top.

Since their origins in 1953 they progressed to be one of the top clubs in firstly the Northern Suburbs Association and then the Gladesville Hornsby Football Association.

But in 1973, the itch to progress to a higher level in the game, saw North Ryde join the NSW Soccer Federation in the Inter-Suburban 3rd Division (equivalent of our Division 5 in 1998).

After a lean first few years, Ryde slowly worked their way up the Federation ranks. They won their first trophy in 1977 winning the grand final in Division 6 against Bonnyrigg Eagles (not the side in Super League) and quickly followed that two years later with the double in Division 4 and a further grand final win in Division 3 a year further on.

It meant that Ryde had gained promotion in successive years from 1977 till 1981 where they were in the 2nd Division. Success proved elusive in this Division for sometime.

In 1985, the club affiliated with the North Ryde R.S.L. Club, adopting the blue and gold colours of that club and continuing that through to the present day. The R.S.L. remain strong supporters of the junior club to this day and are one of the biggest clubs in the Gladesville Hornsby Soccer Football Association.

It is no coincidence that success returned for the club with this union winning successive grand final in 1985 and 1986. However promotion eluded them and in 1987 the club finished last and they returned to the Inter-Urban leagues.

They gained promotion once again in 1990 and put together a plan to one day play in the top league in NSW. The appointment of ex-Marconi keeper Bruce James signalled these intentions.

However it was the appointment of current coach Les DeCelis in 1992 that was the real turning point for the club. They just missed promotion to the 1st Division and were beaten by Bathurst in the grand final.

The clubs most successful year came the following season, sweeping all before them to take out all major honours in the 2nd Division and gaining promotion to the 1st Division.

1994 saw them secure their present home ground T.G. Millner Field, renowned as the home of Eastwood Rugby Club. It facilities were far greater than Magdala Oval, with covered seating and a licensed club located which overlooks the ground. On top of that the club produced a 5 Year Plan to eventually make them a force in the NSWSF.

In 1995 they changed their name to Ryde City, in an attempt to create a larger support base, while the clubs Junior Development Policy was paying dividends with their success in the Under 21 and 18 competitions plus the formation of four teams in the Division 2 Youth League competition.

1996 and 1997 saw Ryde crowned 1st Division Club Champions, while the Youth League won promotion to the 1st Division in 1998 after all four of its teams made the grand finals, winning two of them.

The club has also achieved good results off the park by securing giant European tyre manufacturer Continental as their main sponsor. Continental is a main sponsor of the European Champions League and obviously saw in Ryde, a club that has a tremendous future in the code at the top level.

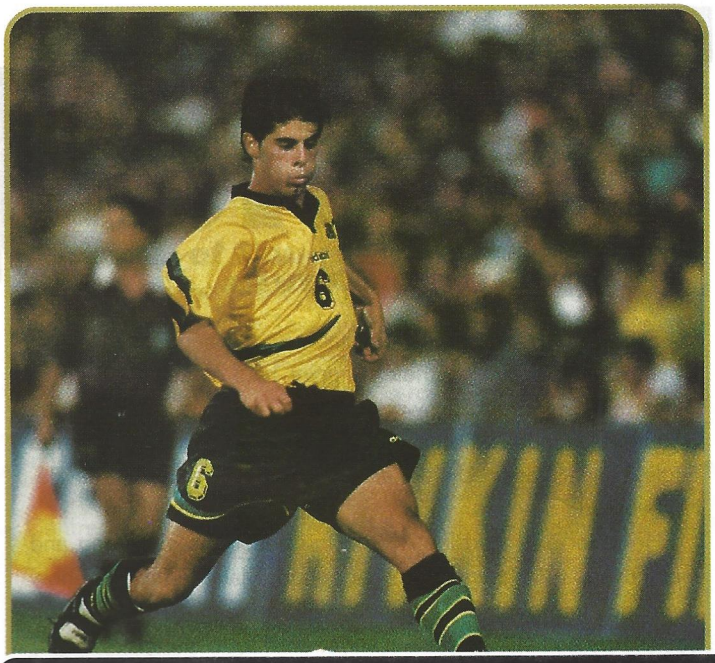
Despite busy work commitments, DeCelis has decided to take control of the 1st team in this historic year and has gone about fashioning a very competitive side with a good blend of youth and experience.

Captain Chris Cowley and Jeff Kelly are two of the longest serving members of the club and along with Richard Miranda, John McKie and new signings John Koch, Craig Moffitt and Anthony Avellino, give the side a vast amount of experience that complements the younger players very well.

Matthew Borg is highly regarded by DeCelis and believes he will grab his share of headlines this season. He will lead the attack along with Tim Gledhill, while Nils Johnsson and Adam Peatey are two more youngsters that have showed loads of potential in the pre-season cup.

With Ryde now part of the Super League and the recent announcement of new club Northern Spirit based at North Sydney in next years Ericsson Cup competition, soccer north of the harbour is set for boom times like never before. And you can be rest assured that Ryde will be doing its bit to attract as many new supporters to the game and also give the large number of junior players in the area, a stepping stone to play soccer at the highest level.

'OLE' ROOS beat Brazil



Bill Damianos supplied the cross that led to Australia's opening goal.

Australia achieved one of its best ever results on the world stage with a 2-1 win over Brazil, as the both sides got their Sydney 2000 Olympic preparations underway at Parramatta Stadium.

It was a night to remember, not only because Australia thoroughly deserved the win but it reinforced the belief that Australian soccer is still well and truly on the improve.

The Olyroos however did not just beat the Brazilians, who are the early favourites for Gold at Sydney, but totally outplayed them all over the park. And for the 20,000 strong crowd, a figure promoter Rene Rivkin would certainly not have expected, they were treated to a fantastic match that see-sawed from one end to the other from start to finish.

Olyroo coach Raul Blanco while excited about the win was not getting carried away saying, "We played well and to win is fantastic but we still have a job to finish."

That job is the remaining two games in Adelaide and Perth, which will see the Brazilians obviously improve as they get over the effects of jet lag.

But nothing could be taken away from the Olyroos performance as they started strong and always looked the more likely to score.

A strong start is what Australia needed and they got it from the head of first-time captain Brett Emerton. A series of corners and free kicks had exposed a weakness for the Brazilians on several occasions and in the sixth minute, Bill Damianos far post corner was met with a powerful header by Emerton into the top corner.

That had the crowd buzzing and with the Australians taking the game right up to the Brazilians the chants of 'Aussies' rang true.

Goalkeeper Danny Milosevic didn't have to make his first save until the 19th minute, tipping a Fernando free kick over the bar.

Emerton and Nick Rizzo were constant menaces for the Brazilians, while late inclusion Clayton Zane, was always a constant danger from crosses.

The Brazilian keeper Fabio was the busy of the two and did marvellously well to tip a Damianos acrobatic volley over the bar after Rizzo had teased the Brazilian defence on the right.

However just two minutes later, Brazil were on level terms. A quick free kick found Eriberto and he raced unchallenged to the edge of the penalty area and unleashed a scorching left foot drive that gave Milosevic no chance.

Zane thought he had good claims for a penalty but referee Simon Micallef thought otherwise giving the benefit of the doubt to the Brazilians defender Santos.

Eriberto nearly had a second soon after the break, shaving the bar with his shot but after regaining their composure it was the Olyroos that looked the more dangerous.

Emerton in particular was a constant menace and twice within a minute had the scrambling with one shot flashing wide and the next hitting the post.

A double substitution by Blanco proved the difference however with Michael Curcija and Jason Culina coming on for Damianos and youngster Nick Carle.

After Rizzo was brought down in the 68th minute, Vince Grella's well directed free kick found Curcija all alone just five metres out and he tucked the ball past a startled Fabio.

Led superbly by Simon Colosimo, best afield, the Australian defence never looked seriously threatened from then on and held on for a deserved win and a thunderous applause from a very appreciative crowd.

Olyroos: Milosevic, Blatsis, Colosimo, Bove, Grella, Damianos (Culina), Emerton, Rizzo (Nastevski), Burns, Zane (Care), Carle (Curcija). ■

Teenage Revolution

By Barry Davis

Sydney Olympic took their place at the head of the Club Championship following their 10 point haul at the expense of Macarthur Rams at Lynwood Park. They are followed by Southern Districts, who have played an extra round, Parramatta Eagles and Sydney United all on 16 points and Galdesville-Hornsby on 15 points.

However as I said last week, the season is very long and many things will change over that period. Many teams will show dramatic improvement, others will appear to be sliding backwards and still others will suffer brief form slumps.

Oh yes, there is much drama yet to unfold!

It is very disappointing to report that convenors are not cooperating with Teenage Revolution by supplying informationwhich help me to compile accurate and detailed reports on the wide variety of matches covered. The players, both winners and losers deserve full and complete recognition and coverage.

Sutherland v Blacktown

The clubs split the points evenly in this Bates Drive encounter and the results leave them both in the middle of the table and separated by a single point.

In the 13s both sides were coming off first round successes and on this occasion Sutherland gained the advantage to the tune of 2-0. The Demons turned the tables in the 14s with George Fallah's lads ciming out 3-1 winners. The Demons continued on their winning ways in the 15s with a solid 2-0 victory, while in the 16s Sutherland squared things all up with a narrow 1-0 win.

Wollongong City v Eastern Suburbs

Once again the Wolves failed to secure the majority of the points while playing at home at Brandon Park, where they met Eastern Suburbs for the first time in this years competition.

Their 13s however recorded their first victory for the season, winning convincingly by three goals to nil. Things then began to swing Easts way when their 14s, coached by Tony Del Vecchio, posted a 1-1 draw and earn their first point of the campaign.

Wollongong's 15s continued their run of outs with a 1-2 loss to Steve Lawrence's boys and the tale of woe continued for the home side when the 16s were beaten by a single goal.

Manly-Warringah v Sydney United

The lads from the Northern Beaches slipped up when they allowed the visiting United to grab the lions share of the available points at Cromer Park.

Manly started the day well enough with Richard Paddle's 13s recovering from their first round thumping to record a terrific 3-1 win. Sydney United hit back in the 14s, Allan Griffiths side posting a solid 3-0 win.

Manly gained another point when their 15s shared the spoils with United in a 1-1 draw but it was the visitors who gained the upper hand for the day with a 2-0 win in the 16s.

Southern Districts v Gladesville-Hornsby

Home ground knowledge did not reap very many dividends for Districts, as they earned a meagre three points from their matches against highly fancied Gladesville at Marconi No.2.

The 13s was close with the Michael Hodson coached visitors winning by the odd goal in five. Districts then gained some revenge when the 14s grabbed the full ration of points with a 5-2 win.

However Gladesville were not to be denied and the 15s scored a 1-0 win and the 16s did likewise by the same scoreline to give them a very handy nine points for the day.

Parramatta v Leichhardt

Scoring goals was the order of the day at Melita Stadium with 16 goals in total, with the home side Parramatta getting a result in every game.

Charles Grima guided his Parramatta 13s to a 2-0 win and maintain their perfect record but the 14s ended in a 0-0 stalemate with both teams securing their first point for the year.

Vince Balzan rates his 15s highly and they did him proud with a comprehensive 5-1 win while the 16s came out on top for the home side after an exciting 5-3 victory.

Macarthur v Sydney Olympic

The Rams ended the day with very little to show for the efforts over the very highly rated Olympic when the clubs met at Lynwood Park.

The clash of the 13s was rated as the 'Match-of-the-Round' in this age group after both sides recorded good wins in the opening round. Despite the one-sided scoreline of 4-1 in favour of Olympic, it was anyhting but as the game was played at a cracking pace from start to finish with both teams displaying skill and commitment.

Olympic opened the scoring in the first half through Michael DiMeglio's header and maintained their lead to the break. They went further ahead after the break through John Tsironis but four minutes later Tarquin Oliver hit a 30 metre shot which sailed over the Olympic keeper's head to pull a goal for the Rams.

With the Rams pushing forward looking for the equaliser, Olympic caught them on the break with Tsironis netting his second goal and restoring the two goal buffer. Ricky Bertrakis again exposed the Rams on the break to complete the scoring in Olympic's favour.

The 14s was a close affair with Olympic winning in 1-0 but in the 15s it was all one-way traffic in the 15s with Olympic winning 7-2.

Despite the 0-0 scoreline in the 16s the match was a very entertaining affair with both teams goalkeepers outstanding.

Newcastle v Marconi

Newcastle Breakers scored their very first 12-point haul in Super Youth League with a whitewash of Marconi at Topper Stadium.

The 13s won 5-1, the 14s scrapped home with a 1-0 win, the 15s won 3-1 and the 16s 3-2. Reportedly, the Breakers came home strong in the second half of each match and Marconi had no answer to their superior match fitness.

Preview of Round 3

In the 13s the Wollongong City and Manly-Warringah should be an interesting affair. This will be Manly's first away game while it's Wollongong's third successive home game. A win for either side would see them make some in-roads into the top half of the table and may even put them on the path to greater success later in the year.

Entertainment plus should be on show at the Croatia Sports Centre as Sydney United and Sydney Olympic clash in the 14s. Both teams are performing very well and if both keep up their attacking policy their should be plenty of action in and around the respective penalty areas. Both goalkeepers will need to be on their toes.

Again at the Croatia Sports Centre, the 15s should keepe the crowd on the edge of their seats from beginning to end. Olympic is on a high after its big win last weekend but United are a good side and certainly won't let Olympic have it their own way. May well be only a goal between these two teams.

The standout match in the 16s looks to be the Marconi and Sutherland game. Their should not be much between them in the final result and a win would certainly help towards a place at the top end of the table.

Division One Youth League

Things are very tight at the top of the Club Championship table but appearances can be deceptive!

Bonnyrigg White Eagles lead the charge at the moment on 24 points which is the maximum from two rounds, a terrific effort so early in the season. They are closely followed by AC United on 23 points, however they have played just extra round. Central Coast is next on 22 points from four rounds, meaning they have dropped 13 and 26 points respectively to date. It is still hard to tell who will win the Championship at this early stage but Bonnyrigg is certainly showing they mean business.

St. George v Rockdale

This friendly neighbourly affair was very much lop-sided as St. George took all the points against Rockdale at St. George Stadium.

St. George's 13s scored a comprehensive 7-0 win against the Suns setting the early tone for the day. Nick Pontis' 14s continued the trend with a 3-0 win, while the 15s were given a tougher time eventually winning 3-2 in a cliffhanger. The Saints then capped off a fine day for the club with a 4-1 win.

Illawarra v Ryde

The two clubs walked away from BHP Sportsground with five points each in what looked an even contested.

Coaches Geoff Costello and Peter Kaklos watched their sides fight out a 1-1 draw in the 13s but it was all one-way in the 14s with Ian Raeburn's side convincing 5-1 winners.

However, the Lions balanced the books in the 15s when Steve Leighton's team won 2-1. Lion's George Alacorn and Ryde's experienced Cec Thompson provided advice and inspiration for their respective teams in the 16s as the lads battled out a 1-1 draw.

Bankstown Assoc. v Southern Branch

Bankstown Association continue their long relationship with sponsors Bankstown City Credit Union at the new playing headquarters Stuart Reserve. However, they had to settle for second best on the field of play as Southern Branch enjoyed their long drive home with seven points from the day.

The day started badly for the home side as Steve Davison's Southern Branch 13s recorded a comfortable 4-0 win. Neither team could find the back of the net in the 14s and they had to settle for a 0-0 draw. Southern Branch extended their points tally when the wily Ray Tweedie guided his 15s to a 2-1 win.

The 16s was designated 'Match-of-the-Round' by Teenage Revolution last week and from all reports lived up to that status. The quality of play was excellent from beginning to end. Southern took the lead midway through the first half thanks to B Foley but within five minutes Bankstown were level, O Gogebakan scoring the equaliser. J Mackin put the home side ahead just before the break. Midway through the second half Mackin increased the home sides lead after capitalising on an error by Southern and they wrapped it all up when J Hart converted a penalty kick to leave the score at 4-1.

Bonnyrigg v CSI Schofield

The Eagles served notice that they will be a real force this year as they rolled CSI for the full measure of points at the Serbian Centre, scoring 18 goals along the way and conceding only three.

Their intentions were clear from the first match of the day with a 4-1 win in the 13s and then they went on with the job to earn a 6-1 win in the 14s.

Bonnyrigg was far from finished though as they whacked six past CSI 15s without reply and then finished them off with closest result of the day, a 2-1 win in the 16s.

Penrith v Canterbury Assoc.

Canterbury made the trip west for this clash and their journey was well rewarded with a seven point haul for the day, leaving Penrith with only four. Starting the day well was undoubtedly important for Canterbury and they managed to snatch the three points with a close 2-1 win in the 13s. Penrith turned the tables on the visitors in the 14s with a 2-0 win.

Not to be outdone, the boys from the inner west answered the call with a comprehensive 6-2 win in the 15s while the 16s were all square at the final whistle with a 2-2 draw.

Blacktown Assoc. v AC United

Blacktown was another which failed to take full advantage of their home ground, gaining only four points and allowing AC to take seven points home with them.

AC's 13s got them off to a good start with a 1-0 win and they gained a further point in the 14s which finished 2-2. Ken Schembri rates the Blacktown 15s very highly and they didn't let him down when they beat the fancied AC 15s 1-0. However AC had the final word in the 16s which they won 2-0.

Central Coast v Nepean

The Coasties usually play their best football at Pluim Park and they continued to pose problems for all who visit there.

A stirling 4-1 win in the 13s gave the Coasties a very good start but they faltered with with a 2-3 loss to the visitors in the 14s. As with all good clubs, they bounce back straight away and did so in the 15s with a 4-0 win and repeated the dose in the 16s with a 4-1 win.

Preview Round 3

The most interesting clash in the 13s looks to be Southern Branch and Bonnyrigg down at South Nowra. Bonnyrigg are in form but many a team has stumbled down there and Southern Branch are no slouches and will aiming to take all the points.

The 14s presents a top of the table clash between AC United and Ryde City. AC have collected just one more point than their opponents but have played one more match. Ryde. Ryde have the better attacking and defensive record but AC are playing at home. We'll see what happens on the day.

Illawarra Lions and St. George will be striving to maintain their early top four positions so the match is sure to provide plenty of entertainment. They both have healthy attacking records so a good number of goals could be scored.

The same two sides are the pick of the 16s with it having a significant effect on the early season placings. Both have a chance of an early top four place with a win, so they are sure to be going at each other full bore. Picking a winner is a real challenge as they have similar records.
